15. 22-0426 Approval of settlement with Walgreens in the opioid litigation.

Recommended Action: That the proposed settlement with Walgreens be approved by the BoCC, and the County Manager authorized to sign the necessary settlement documents. Since the months of June and July may present some timing issues between additional settlements being proposed and the timelines to execute the settlement documents, for those months, it is recommended that the County Manager be authorized to sign settlements which are proposed where, as in this settlement and the previous settlements, the amount is not negotiable by the County.

Fiscal Consideration: This settlement will yield funds which are limited to use for mitigation, prevention, and treatment of opioid abuse over a period of years. The estimated direct payment over time to Alachua County is $787,103.09. The time period is 18 years.

17. 22-0365 Main Street Detention Pond Outflow Filter Project: Inter-Local Agreement #13304 with Florida Department of Transportation.

Recommended Action: Approve and authorize Chair to sign inter-local agreement #13304 with FDOT, adopt resolution recognizing unexpected revenue, approve the budget amendment, and approve inter-fund loan of $86,000.

Fiscal Consideration: This unanticipated revenue will provide reimbursement of $86,000 of project construction costs. Because this is a reimbursement agreement an inter-fund loan is necessary to temporarily cover expenses. These are additional funds being added to the existing project which is funded from Fund 146 Stormwater Management, for a total project budget $248,000.00.

18. 22-0382 Stipulated Consent Order for Grand Oaks at Tower

Recommended Action: Approve the Stipulated Consent Order with Weseman Development, LLC.

Fiscal Consideration: A Stipulated Consent Order was entered with Weseman Development, LLC in which the developer agreed to restrict installation of permanent irrigation in a future development phase and in turn, the County agreed, contingent upon approval of the Board, to waive a $100 After the Fact Approval Fee for 94 parcels ($9,400) and a Fee refunded for 24 parcels ($2,400) for which fees have already been collected. Although this will result in forfeiting $11,800 in fees from the General Fund, there is benefit in increased water conservation and improved water quality by the irrigation restriction.

The Irrigation Approval Fee ($50) and Inspection Fee ($85) will still be paid for all 118 parcels, resulting in $15,930 fees collected for these lots. Fees collected through implementation of this Code do not directly support this program but do benefit the General Fund. Fund: Various revenue accounts within 001.55.5511. Water Resources
